PEEKABOO

With a simple game of peekaboo, Senior Airman Andrzej Wojcicki cheers up an Afghan child at an internal displacement camp near Kabul. The Airman is with the Combined Security Transition Command-Afghanistan. He and other volunteers deliver donated clothing, school supplies, toiletries and toys to the camp, where more than 580 families live. The command's more than 500 servicemembers train and mentor the Afghan national army and police.
